MORROW SODALI OPENS A NEW GERMAN OFFICE UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF ANDREA BISCHOFF, MANDY OFFEL AND PETRA BECKER

Frankfurt – November 06, 2018: Morrow Sodali announced today that Andrea Bischoff, Mandy Offel and Petra Becker have joined the firm to open a new branch in Frankfurt, Germany. The German team, representing Morrow Sodali in Germany, Switzerland and Austria, will provide corporate clients and boards of directors with comprehensive services and strategic advice relating to corporate governance, ESG, proxy solicitation, shareholder activism, mergers, shareholder engagement and communications.

Ms. Bischoff, who will lead the Morrow Sodali German team, said: “I am excited to bring to the German market the strategic expertise, analytical capabilities and transactional services available through Morrow Sodali’s global network. This alliance will greatly expand the value proposition we can offer to corporate clients.”

Ms. Bischoff, who formerly worked with the firm of DF King, brings more than 20 years experience in shareholder transactions and communications. During her career she has advised on several hundred AGM, EGM and M&A projects, helping issuers understand, engage and communicate with shareholders and the investor community.

Alvise Recchi, CEO of Morrow Sodali, said: “We are delighted to bring such an experienced team into the Morrow Sodali family. Andrea, Mandy and Petra are the leading experts in their region. They will enable us to expand our services in this important market and maintain the high quality of advice and service that our clients demand.”
